report to the listener

Dear Listener,

By now I can wish you a Happy Chinese New Year because we Han people celebrate a lunar time change.

I hope the new year continues well with you.

In this space today, I want to engage you in a task. It requires some thinking and writing on your part. I'm asking you to give KPFK a call and ask for a Listener Feedback Pack. This pack will tell you how you can help shape KPFK's future development.

In this space before, I have told you KPFK is embarking on a strategic planning process. We are in an information gathering phase now and we seek your participation.

In planning jargon, KPFK is conducting an environmental scan. Specifically, we are asking you to identify trends — leading or cutting edges — among some of the various environments in which your community radio station operates.

Among the types of questions are: How would you define the current political trends in Southern California? What demographic changes have you witnessed? Is the cultural and social environment of your neighborhood reflected in KPFK's programming? Are you familiar with the technological advances in broadcasting with which we must contend, or the challenges presented by the more than 80 stations competing for your attention on the radio dial?

These kinds of questions are just a sample of the areas we'll be studying. If you're familiar with some or all of the topics above, please make a contribution to our information gathering efforts.

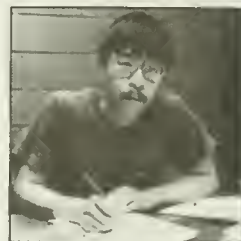

Here's what to do:

- 1: Call us at 818/ 985-2711 for a Listener Feedback Pack.
2. When you receive it, follow the directions inside
3. Return it to the station, as soon as you can
4. The more informed your opinion, the better, since we're seeking sources to support the trends you identify.

If this seems too involved, there's another way you can help this process. Just drop us a post card and contribute information concerning KPFK's broadcast signal quality. How's your reception of our signal: how is it at home, in the car and at work? Please include information about the locations our signal strength is strong, weak or in between. Thank you again.

Be well.

The Pacifica Foundation provides the KPFK mailing list to an organization which in turn rents or exchanges, on behalf of the Foundation, mailing lists of other non-profit organizations. If you object to having your name and address used in this way, please write to our Subscriptions Department, enclosing a recent Folio label, and we will omit you from our exchange list.

If your request has already been entered into the computer, the letters "NX" will appear on the top line of your mailing label, to the right of the expiration date.

program highlights

AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH

February

Four exciting dramatic productions give a different flavor to this year's celebration of African American History. We get our first taste of two nationally syndicated drama series: Soundplay and Radio Stage. Third Kingdom, directed by former KPFFK drama and literature director, Everett Frost, airs Monday Feb 3 at 10:30 pm. Tune in to surrealist Adrienne Kennedy's Dramatic Circle, Thursday Feb 5 at 2:30 pm, and The Devil and Uncle Asa, by Rufus Caleb, Thursday, Feb. 20 at 2:30 pm.

DJ Nnamdi and Assumpta Oturu present a critical analysis of the question of whether Africa should have a national language, Sat. Feb 15 at 11:00 pm, while Roots of Rap takes a different look at the politics and influence of words with hosts DJ Nnamdi and MC Ogegeko Wednesday Feb 12 at 8:00 pm.

And we hear from two outstanding social critics: Angela Davis relates her observations of South Africa on Saturday Feb. 15 at 10:00 pm; and Professor Manning Marable discusses Building Multicultural Democracy, Thursday, Feb. 20 at 7:00 pm.

And of course, the celebrations begin with Afrikan Mental Liberation Weekend, 9 am - Mid Saturday Feb. 1 & Sunday Feb 2 as Dr. Kwaku Person-Lynn presents a stunning array of universal Afrikan scholars and thinkers who devote their lives to bring forth accurate information related to universal Afrikan history, culture, thinking and development. Tune in for two full days of discussion, debate and enlightenment about Afrikan history, thought, culture and development as these scholars dig up the facts to get at the truth.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

March

To celebrate the history of working women during this Women's History Month, we bring you special programming throughout the month of March.

Fugitive Information is a series of essays dealing with the practical application of feminist theory and the construction of new theories from within the community. Written by Kay Leigh Hagan, these inspired essays can be heard at 9:00 am every Monday and Wednesday morning through March.

Space is the Place is a series of three documentaries that explore how our designed environment is changing in response to economic, social political and technological changes in our society; specifically those issues facing women in the workforce. The essays air Friday, March 13 at 3:00 pm, Wednesday, March 18 at 4:30 pm and Friday, March 27 at 3:00 pm.

Mothers of Freedom of the Press introduces us to the work of some remarkable women in the printing, publishing and postal industries. Friday, March 20 at 2:00 pm

The week of March 23rd at noon, Jeannie Pool brings us special readings from her new book. She examines the development of the international women-in-music movement of the last two decades; its major trends, events, organizations and individuals.

FUND DRIVE

February 26 through March 7

February and March are extraordinary months: February brings us celebration of African Americans, and March celebrates Women. As KPFFK brings you superior programming for these two remarkable celebrations, we ask you to tune in and support us during our Fund Drive which spans both months. Now is the time to spread the word. Tell your friends to try out the station during African American History Month, and ask them to join in time for Women's History Month.

SQUARE PEGS

Enfoque Latino brings us a Valentine's Day special, Friday, Feb. 14 at 3:00 pm;

Wednesday, Feb. 5 at 7:30 researcher Chip Berlet talks about the ins and outs of Conspiracy Theories;

Saturday, Feb. 21 at 10:00 pm, Michael Parenti enlightens us about Voodoo Economics;

Thursday, March 12 at 7:00 pm join Nuri Mohammed for a Ramadan special; and Spirits of the Present is a series of programs about the Legacy of Native America. These documentaries air Mondays at 3:00 pm on Feb 3, Feb 17, Mar. 16 and Mar 30.

Jacki Apple presents the premiere of her new work, The Culture of Disappearance. Tuesday Feb. 26, 8:30 pm

Soundings features the American premiere of Pressures of the Unspeakable, a new work by radio artist Gregory Whitehead. Tuesday, Mar. 24 8:30 pm;

CELEBRATIONS

Folkscene celebrates 22 years of broadcasting in a special program Sunday Feb. 9 at 7:30 pm;

Peter Sutheim, for 16 years producer and host of In Fidelity, was among LA Audio File's Top Ten List of "audio journalists." (January, 1992 issue)

THE THIRD KINGDOM

This radio play, derived from Suzan-Lori Parks' Obie Award-winning play, Imperceptible Mutabilities of the Third Kingdom, was first performed in New York at BACA-Downtown. The play's premise is that between the coasts of Africa and America lies The Third Kingdom, a watery realm of racial injustice left over from Noah and residing in human consciousness itself.

Written by Suzan-Lori Parks, this play depends on the play of language and sound, and explores a rich transcultural perspective of myth, metaphor and story.

Directed by Suzan-Lori Parks and Everett Frost. Cast includes Pamala Tyson, Leon Addison-Brown, Shona Tucker, Peter Schmitz, and Patrice Johnson. Production Engineer, Stephen Frickson. Partial funding from the New York State Council on the Arts. Sponsored by Harvestworks/Studio PASS. Production: Voice International 1991.

Old Shanghai Tea House Orchestra On a recent trip to China as a guest of Radio Shanghai, Mario Casetta had the good fortune to hear and record a typical tea house orchestra of yesteryear. The concert of ancient songs played on ancient instruments by men in their 70s and 80s evoked a flavor of China and Old Shanghai that belongs to radically different eras running the gamut from imperial dynasties to communism. The old gentlemen who made this recording (and performed it in the old city) were doing it especially for and directly to KPFK audiences, and they hope you will enjoy their efforts to entertain you with music specifically from the Shanghai region of China.

ahs recently released a monumental anthology of South Indian music. Both vocal and instrumental, it is available in four CDs (or five cassettes) and begins with the sacred Vedas, dating four thousand years BCE. It is impossible to over-laud this project — which was directed by Pierre Toureille and distributed by the noted house of Harmonia Mundi. An 84-page booklet accompanies the material with complete notes/diagrams and descriptions in English, French, Spanish and German. Mario Casetta will be presenting this music treasure in installments, beginning today with Part I. Nobody leave the room.
